Electric Broadsheet is published on a sporadic eclectic schedule. Reproduction of this magazine is permitted as long as the magazine is not sold (either by itself or as part of a collection) and the entire text of the issue remains intact. Electric Broadsheet can be freely distributed, provided it is not modified in any way, shape, or form.

Poetry Ink Productions retains first-time rights and the right to reprint this issue, either in printed or electronic format. All other rights to works appearing in Electric Broadsheet written by authors other than Matthew W. Schmeer revert to said authors upon publication.

While our focus is to publish poetry, prose, and short fiction, we are always open to lending a hand on other projects involved with the art of the written word. If you are interested in submitting works for possible publication as an installment of Electric Broadsheet, please email us for our submission guidelines.

Trademarks and servicemarks mentioned in this magazine are registered trademarks and servicemarks of their respective owners, regardless of whether or not they are so denoted.

Electric Broadsheet is produced on an Apple Macintosh LC II running MacOS™ version 7.1. We use Global Village Teleport Gold II Fax/Modems. Electric Broadsheet is produced using Mariner Write 1.4.5, Claris EMailer 1.1.v3, and BareBones Software's freeware BBEEdit Lite 4.1. We encourage others to support these fine hardware manufacturers and software programmers.
